A Magazine devoted to the art of Postal Backstabbing, Internal Intrigue, Espionage, With Editor/Publisher/Gamesmaster-Harold(Hal) Naus-288 Broadway #139, Chula Vista, Calif; 92010 (714-420-9619), Available, to players Free, In Trade, or at 10/$1.00 Rate. Arr 007 Publication November-1966, Games Fee(Regular)$2.00(Variant($2.50)Or both for $3.00

ADAG ANSWERS

1. THE KONING RULE... Entirely without any prejudice for this Ruling.
2. TWO FORCES RETREATING TO THE SAME PROVIDENCE. No question on this I will annihilate both forces.
3. THE COASTAL CRAWL.. ADAG will allow the Coastal Crawl,
4. THE COMPOUND RULE(KONING)OR WELLS EXTENSION. Stab-Yes, Adag-Yes
5. SUPPORT BY FLEETS IN SPLIT PROVIDENCES.. I yield to the rules.
6. BRANNANS RULES.. Very definitely yes
7. THE SURROUNDED FORCE ATTACKED ON TWO SIDES. I yield to the Rules.
8. OTHER QUESTION.
  - a)... The Victory Criterion, All playesr send your votes on this.
  - b)... The Spring Raid-NO
  - c)... Convoyed Support-NO
  - e)... THE CUTTING OF THE CUTTING OF SUPPORT-YES
  - f)... Convoying between contiguous providences-YES
  - g)... Exchange of providences thru Convoy-YES
  - h)... Swenson's Rule-NO
9. REPLACEMENT OF PLAYERS.. Regardless of the player having paid to into a game, Remember one thing, he is paying for the right to enter in that game and agrees by entering to abide by the rules as set forth, Therefore I would rule in the Gamesmasters right to replace a player who misses moves, By also missing moves he puts in jeopardy the player he is having an alliance with.
10. RETREATS... I will retreat a unit if there is one providence open(Non-Supply Only), The Player then has the option of taking the retreat or not, If he fails to acknowledge the retreat one way of the other, I will then remove it.

RULES OF ADROITE A GAUCHE(ADAG)

1. The rules of Games research (With the above exceptions)shall be followed.
2. Countries will be assigned as far as possible by choice.
3. Deadlines shall be midnight of the day announced.
4. In cases where there is only a few builds, I will ask for Spring moves along with the builds(And will notify the players of the builds by surface mail).
5. Failure to submit moves, the units shall be considered standing and if dislodged will be annihilated.
6. Failure to submit moves for one year, will mean removal.
7. The last moves received by the deadline shall be binding.
8. Moves may be submitted conditional, on retreats.
9. Players may have there position taken over temporarily by a substitute player(Not in the game)By notify the gamesmaster in adavance.
10. I will publish all propaganda, but reserve the right to edit or delete all material.
11. No player in the same game will be allowed to submit moves for another player in the same game.
12. All Rules are subject to change by (5)Five players.
13. All decisions are final, unless overridden by the vote of(5) five players.
14. Etc,etc,etc,So as not to have 13 rules, I not superstitious.

CHANGE OF DESIGNATION

TO correspond with Graustark Games Ratings, 66-AM IS changed to AL and 66-AN is changed to AM.

JAMES LATIMER... I heartly disagree with Jack Chalkers ruling, I regard his ruling as out of step with the rules. EDITOR: Though I still agree with Jack, I yield to the players and will not use it.

John Koning...In re; to the "Chalker Delimma" The ruling is so much nonsense. Denmark was attacked by two forces of equal strength resulting in a standoff. The Chalamer rules read"..... an order to move, with support, against a unit belonging to the same Country as the moving or supporting unit is of no effect; that is, a country may not force one of its own units to retreat" Now look at the Chalker Delimma, England attempted to move the Fleet Denmark to Kiel and Attacked Denmark with the Force of one Supported unit. Russia also attacked Denmark with the support of one unit. England's move to Kiel Failed; The fleet in Denmark stood Now you say-or Chalker said-The Helgoland Fleet may not support the English attack on Denmark because the attack will dislodge the English Fleet-a violation of the above mentioned rule. The English attack, with support, cannot dislodge the fleet in Denmark; THE RUSSIANS ARE ALSO ATTACKING WITH A SINGLE SUPPORT. The English Fleet in Denmark will stand; It will not be dislodged; In GraustarkmStab, and in games played at the YUDC and Scarborough meetings-and other places and publications as well-a unit attacked by two forces of equal strength will stand...Now if Denmark had been attacked by Russia with no support-or if there had been no Russian attack on Denmark;-Then the Fleet in the Helgoland bight could not have given support to England's attack. The rules are explicit on the matter. Chalker just failed to consider the problem long enough. In fact given the way the Calhamer rules read the fleet in the Helgoland Bight must be permitted to support the English attack, for without the support the fleet in Denmark will be dislodged and annihilated for lack of a proper retreat. If a unit is not permitted to dislodge a unit of its own Country how may a Gamesmaster permit the unit to ignore an order critical to the survival of such a unit, eh? ((How about you Allan Calhamer any Comments on this?)) I will Stand on my ruling, unless I hear more to the contrary (I'm not being stubborn just show me, I'm wrong and I will admit it) HAN

1966-AE

Constantinople...The sultan of the Ottomans was very upset over the out-rageous personal attacks of her foulness, the Matriarch of Russia. He was very especially worried over the comments that the Women of Russia possess more "Know-how" than Turkish women. In an attempt to discover the truth of the matriarchs claims the sultan ordered five hundred Russian women-who had been captured during the Ottoman offensive in the Crimea-to be distributed among five hundred of Constantinoples most eligible husbands. A survey was taken. the Unedited results were as follows.....

1...To the question of "How clean do you think Russian women Are?

394-Said Russian Women were clean enough to take care of the Stables of the work Horses.

101-Were positive that Russian Women could be persuaded to take a bath in a few months.

5-Had no comment, as they were unable to get close enough to inspect their women(These men were noted for their sense of smell)

2...Two months later a second question was asked "How much 'Know-how' do Russian women possess?"

394-Were unable to answer the question because they were unable to make a distinction between the Russian women & the work horses.

64-Nor bad for Amatuers-But needed more training.
277Hadn't been able yet to persuade their women to take a bath-and they didn't care who was taking the poll, they weren't going to risk the displeasure of thier wives by catching "something from a Russian".

10-Were satisfied that Russian women would make good fourth wives-but were quick to mentioned-never a concubine2.

5-Still had no comment as they were still unable to get close enough to their Russian women (It is rumored that the five had been purchasing large quantities of perfumes-it appears to no avail)

It can only be assumed from the above poll that Russian women do not possess more "Know-How" than Turkish women. In fact in every instance they were inferior. Finally it must be assumed that Russian women haven't yet learned the necessity of a bath. (Perhaps that is why Russian men are so wild) so it appears her foulness, the Matriarch of Russia, was most unjust in her comments of last winter. It can only be hoped that her foulness will correct her false impression of the real situation in her Country and the world.

MONTENEGRO.

Prince Pussyfoot, the absolute sovereign of this tiny principality has been following the general European war with great interest.
After sticking a new group of yellow pins on the map he chuckled
"Who will Turkeys next victim be." Austria or Italy? HaHa"; The Prince can afford to laugh, since he knows no power will dare Retaliate-Mainly because they haven't been able to locate his Kingdom on the map yet.

BUDAPEST(1 Dec 1902)..The Emperor of the Hungarian throne has declared himself ruler of all Austria-Hungary territory by default.
He claimed that since Emperor Highly Silly was captured by the retreating latins, he was the rightful successor. The New ruler also stated he would immediately reorganize the F.B.I. (Fictitious Bureau of Instigation) which made several pre war goff-ups. He also pledged to reconstruct the armed forces, which of late have been boozing it up in the alps. It is rumored that after Parliament turned down their request for wine and women, the army decided to go to Paris via Switzerland.

MORE ON CHALKER ... ROD WALKER

The Rules are very explicit on this point. They say a nation cannot force its own forces to retreat. They say(Don't) that a nation cannot attack, with support a province occupied by one of its own units.
The Rules also say that equal force stands off equal force. Therefore, the two units attempting to enter Denmark will stand off each other. Regardless of what the unit already in Denmark is doing. I will grant that this ruling does some slight violence to the rules in that the single unit in Denmark does not have to retreat. However, the Chalker ruling is in complete disregard for the rules.. His ruling allows three Russian units to defeat five British units.
If there were some justification for this in the rules, I could go along with it, but there isn't and I can't(Editor.. Rod as for your statement that the rules do not need revision, I must say that you are wrong, They do need revision, Because each Gamesmaster has his own ruling, Even now McCallum and a few others are not in complete agreement with Konings ruling, If we are forced to abide by the rules as set forth by Gamesresearch, then we are faced with a game that we be a complete and Utterly boring.) (Again I state I agree with Jack on this regardless of how many disagree, But, I will not use the rule do to the fact that players have already complained about it, and we are here to please.HAN.

VIENNA...Now the Austrian policy has been formulated at last. After all the bumbling and searching we have decided upon what we shall do and propose a plan. We seek the friendliest relations with our neighbor, Italy and entreat him to aid us against the expanding Turks. We seek peace and understanding to our brother nation, Germany and ask for aid against the Russians. We seek a three way alliance in fact.

VIENNA...I guess you were right John. This sort of an alliance won't work in Diplomacy. It might have you gone up through Russia. Sorry.

LUCHINE CASTLE..Luchini Castle was at last freed from the Gogorians this evening. the new Pope, Pio IV, thus, found an excuse to give a press conference, the Pope made it clear to everyone that Italy would not stand for Austrian attacks on Venice, "We simply cannot tolerate Austrian peasants immigrating to our Country." The Pope also announced the Holy Fleet is moving to Albania. The Fleet noted for its illusiveness, even escaped the eye of the omniscient power.

1966-O

Following his installation as new head of the "Rushing-Turkey" Government of Turkey, Premier Kardnalsin promised the war against Russia's last remaining forces would be pushed to a successful and speedy conclusion. Or in the vernacular "We will rush the Russians out of Russia...The Capitol was filled with visiting Ambassadors from Austria, Italy and England, but no consultations were in progress at press time. The Premier was on a good-will tour of Isreal (Supposedly looking for some kind of religious fanatic that keeps popping up at this time of year.)

Reliable sources in Vienna report tonight that Austrian forces had occupied Venice and were pressing forward with their attack on Constantinople on the Southern Front. It was not expected that Constantinople would be easy to conquer as Venice (Though Francis I was reported to be considering using the same tactics against Constantinople that worked so well against Venice-Namely, using 5,000 boxes of "Super Suds" to drown the city in a sea of soap suds. The Austrian secret weapon was reported to be working well in the Southern Campaign. When asked to comment, General Von Hickenpooper, replied; "Ah, Yes, the secret weapon is keeping up a steady drain on Turkish forces". The successful occupation of Venice comes as no surprise to Austrian Patriots since Baron Cameron Swazy has long since perfected the "Coo-Coo clock maneuver", which worked so well in the Tyrol. The Baron, when last seen, was at the helm of the Imperial Yacht TIMEX, racing through Venice's Canals wearing a Coo Coo clock as he disappeared amid the Soap Suds surrounding St. Marks Plaza.

LONDON(15 April 1903): His Britannic Majesty, Edgar III, in a rare Journey, stopped in this seaport town to deliver a speech. His Majesty Said; "We have come to give our blessing to the new fleet into the great war with the Huns. Now that Bolshevik Russia has been defeated, the turn of her Ally, Germany, has come. In vain the Germans have entrusted their defense to a renegade Russian Rabble-rouser. This Lenin shall fall with the horrid philosophy he has helped bring to Germany. It is our intent that our Cousin, the most puissant Prince Max, shall become Kaiser in Berlin and shall receive the Iron Cross from our hands. His Highness has been brought here at great expense to the Crown, from the Squiji Islands, where he was formerly an obscure government employee. Long live Kaiser Max III.

MOSCOW(3 May 1903)..His Imperial Majesty, Rurik III, Tsar of all Russians, rode into the former Russian Capitol today in the vanguard of the Allied Anglo-Turkish army which routed the last Bolshevik defenses of the Third Rome early today. After reviewing the Allied Army from the walls of the Kremlin, His Majesty departed for his Capitol. St. Petersburg.

MOSCOW(22 Sept 1903) In an unprecedented action, his Imperial Majesty Vladimir II, King of Poland, Russia, Roman Emperor of the East, and King of Sweden, addressed the Duma. In his speech, his majesty repudiated the Treaty of Konigsberg, signed with Germany in 1901, and declared war on the German Empire. This treaty is an unbelievable insult, whereas we, ourselves signed the treaty, the signer for Germany was a Baron, Imagine a mere Baron signing a treaty which had been signed by the heir of the Caesars. It is our sad duty to repudiate this treaty and to declare war upon the German empire, until sufficient satisfaction has been obtained. Our Loyal friends, France and England, shall join us in our Crusade against bad Manners.
